

Are you really who you say you are?
You walk all over broken hearts
Has it been so bad that I'm just a joke to you?
You can't take it back you've gone to far
You tear me down and leave your scars
But when you think back, you will remember

Hey you, I tried
But the promises you break
And everything you say
Doesn't mean a thing
'Cause everything's a fake
Just like you.

There was a time I trusted you
I lost myself, then found the truth
That I had been cheated and I will remember

Did you, did you, did you see this coming?
Did you, did you, did you feel this coming?
You never thought that I would leave you standing
I left you standing
I HAD THE LAST LAUGH

Hey you, I tried
But the promises you break
And everything you say
Doesn't mean a thing
'Cause everything's a fake
Just like you

Hey you, I tried
But the promises you break
And everything you say
Doesn't mean a thing
'Cause everything's a fake
Just like you
Everything's fake like you

I never want to be the one you break
The one you take and throw away
I never want to be the one you hate
But I can't win so I just walk away

Did you, did you, did you see this coming?
Did you, did you, did you feel this coming?
You never thought that I would leave you standing
I left you standing
I HAD THE LAST LAUGH

Hey you, I tried
But the promises you break
And everything you say
Doesn't mean a thing
'Cause everything's a fake
Just like you

Hey you, I tried
But the promises you break
And everything you say
Doesn't mean a thing
'Cause everything's a fake
Just like you
