

Forever

Edison Glass

When I'm with you I find myself,
I seem to lose him somewhere else.
What is it about you that makes me see?
You never expected perfection,
All you want is my affection.
What is it about you that makes me believe?

Forever
We'll sing it out, this anthem,
I've never lived until I've known your touch.

Forever
We will take this dance in this romance.
I've never lived until I've known your touch.

We're moved by the authenticity of
Your grace given so abundantly.

Forever
We'll sing it out, this anthem,
I've never lived until I've known your touch.

Forever
We will take this dance in this romance.
I've never lived until I've known your touch.

The comfort is never absent from the need.

Forever
We'll sing it out, this anthem,
I've never lived until I've known your touch.

Forever
We will take this dance in this romance.
I've never lived until I've known your touch.
