

No One Knows

Edyta Bartosiewicz

I wouldn't be surprised at all
If you began to talk,
After all you have seen here,
After all you have watched...

I wouldn't be surprised
If you have had enough,
After all you have heard here,
After every single word...

But hush, hush!
We're still a team
And all that happened stays
In between us...

And no one knows about it,
Only you and I,
We know the things we're hiding,
And no one knows the truth,
Only me and you,
We can see each other through...

You might become my enemy
If you could only speak,
You know how poor is my body
And how mean I can be,

But you're just an old cupboard
Standing in my room,
I love to hide inside you
And feel the scent of wood.

But hush, hush!
We're still a team
And all that happened
Stays in between us...

And no one knows about it,
Only you and I,
We know the things we're hiding.
And no one knows the truth,
Only me and you,
We can see each other through...

Hush, hush!
We're still a team
And all that happened
Stays in between us

Hush, hush
Are we still a team?
Is all that happened
Staying in between us?
Hush, hush!
We're still a team
And all that happened
Stays in between us...

And no one knows...

... We can see each other
Through...
