Empty

Eggnoise

Smoking away infinity While i'm to wait For memory's rival To come

We met with a glimpse
That turned into wine
I felt my pulse
It's beating the hell out of me inside

There is a crime in destiny There is a fate In moments of waiting

I'm head over heels
You're taking your time
I lose my ease
And panic is seizing my brain alright

'Cause my mind is empty
And my heart speaks to you
I should be running to you
But i don't know where you are
Where you are
