

After You

El DeBarge

Letting you out of my life
Was my first mistake
I didn't know it was love
Until too late
We had it all
I gave it up
From lurking to be free
And I'm a fool
I didn't know
Just how much
You mean to me

After you there's no one else
When does my heart starts breaking 'cause
After you there's only me
Knowing I was wrong
And no matter who I wake tonight
I'll only long after your

Saying goodbye
Keeps me playing in my mind
What was my hurl
To leave your love behind

Before the tears
I left it all
I turned and walked away
I fooled myself
But not my heart
And since that day
I'm not the same

After you there's no one else
When does my heart starts breaking 'cause
After you there's only me
Knowing I was wrong
And no matter who I wake tonight
There always be after your

Now I realize you're gone
But I'm never quite alone
'Cause the feeling won't go away
Still my heart keeps drifting after you

After you there's no one else
When does my heart starts breaking 'cause
After you there's only me
And girl it's been too long
I'm coming after you there's no one else
When does my heart starts breaking 'cause
After you there's only me

I'm coming after you there's no one else
(Oh no baby...I'm coming after you baby)
After you there's only me
(Only you, only you)

Still my heart keeps chasing
(Ah yeah, yeah...coming back for more)
After you there's only me
(I'm coming back to you
I'm gonna love you more, love you more...)
