

Broken Dreams

El DeBarge

Broken hearts, broken dreams
Torn apart from the seams
Oh, all I want to do is see lovers together again
Oh ahhh lonely hearts, all alone
Nothing left but a sad, sad song
Oh, all I want to do is see lovers together again

It always starts off so happy
What could go wrong
Two angels sent from above
We need to take a second look
At the things we call love
Oh it's a crying shame
Oh it's always the same
Broken dreams

Broken hearts, all alone
We got to find a way

Broken hearts, broken dreams
Torn apart from the seams
Oh, all I want to do is see lovers together again
Lonely hearts, all alone
Nothing left but a sad, sad song
Oh, all I want to do is see lovers together again

Broken hearts, broken dreams
Torn apart from the seams
Oh, all I want to do is see lovers together again
Lonely hearts, all alone
Nothing left but a sad, sad song
Oh, all I want to do is see lovers together again

Broken hearts, broken dreams
Torn apart from the seams
Oh, all I want to do is see lovers together again
Again
Again
Someone help me please!
Lonely hearts, all alone
Nothing left but a sad, sad song
Oh, all I want to do is see lovers together again
