

You Are My Dream

El DeBarge

When I lay down my head at night
I need you there to hold me tight
But when I wake up, that's when I realize
Honey, you are a special part of me

And though I know sometimes
That it's not easy
But still within my heart
I realize that you're the only one I need

And you are my dream
And you are my everything, baby
And you are my life
And I need you more each day, baby

Some people dream of fortune and fame
They want material things and worldly gain
But all I ever wanted, baby, was to have you by my side
And give you all the love you need for more than just a lifetime, baby

Oh, I know it may sound crazy, so incredible, but I never ever felt like this before, darlin'
To have a world laid at my feet
And all I want is you, 'cause baby

You are my dream
And you are my everything, babe
And you are my life
And I need you more each day, baby

Oh, babe

Honey, honey, honey, honey, honey, honey
You touch my heart in ways, baby
I never ever felt this way before, darlin'
Every time I hold you near
It's like heaven in my arms, 'cause darlin'

You are my dream
And you are my everything, babe
And you are my life
And I need you more each day, baby

And you are my dream
And you're every song I sing, baby
And you are my life
And I need you, I need you more, more each day, baby, hey!

(You are my dream)
I love, I love, I love you only one but you
(You are my life)
You're everything, baby
Hey, baby
Hey, I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you, baby
