

Found Out By Fate

Eleanor McEvoy

Size 9 shoes
Still underneath my bed
Sudo shirts
Books that you never read
One more fake
You're well off goes today
Here's the truth
This love was all a lie

Found out by fate
Let down by love
Counting the days
Till I feel better off
Tortured by moments
I keep thinking of
Found out by fate
Let down by love

What's your game?
What makes you come alive?
Fresh new blood
Guess that's how you survive
Well, how's life now
Trapped in your own sweet hell?
Empty heart

Stuck in an empty shell
Found out by fate
Let down by love
Counting the days
Till I feel better off
Tortured by moments
I keep thinking of
Found out by fate
Let down by love

How many tears does it take
For the truth to shine through?
How many years have I wasted
Living with you?

Found out by fate
Let down by love
Counting the days
Till I feel better off
Tortured by moments
I keep thinking of
Found out by fate
Let down by love
Let down by love
Found out by fate
