

Gimme Some Wine

Eleanor McEvoy

Life's as random as a deck of cards
Here I am betting my heart
I've wagered it on worse thoughts all the same

I was drawn into this world
A fragment of a girl
With nothing but a sad song to my name

Gimme some wine
Gimme some wine
If I can't get your time
Gimme some wine
Get me some wine
It's gonna have to do for now

Gimme some wine
Gimme some wine
If I can't get your time
Gimme some wine
Get me some wine
It's gonna have to do

Well my hands are tired and scarred
But they've carried me this far
And if they show my age
That's okay by me
Growing old's not such a curse
The alternatives are worse
So I'll show my hands
Wherever they may be

Gimme some wine
Gimme some wine
If I can't get your time
Gimme some wine
Get me some wine

It's gonna have to do for now

Gimme some wine
Gimme some wine
If I can't get your time
Gimme some wine
Get me some wine
It's gonna have to do

If you really looked at me
You might see the sun
I might take you round the world
Like no-one else on earth has ever done
But gimme some wine
Gimme some wine
If I can't get your time
Gimme some wine
Get me some wine
It's gonna have to do for now

Gimme some wine
Gimme some wine
If I can't get your time
Gimme some wine
Get me some wine
It's gonna have to do

Gimme some wine
Gimme some wine
If I can't get your time
Gimme some wine
Get me some wine
It's gonna have to do for

Gimme some wine
Gimme some wine
If I can't get your time
Gimme some wine
Get me some wine
It's gonna have to do
