

Feel The Silence

Elegant Machinery

Feel the silence ascend as we speak as memories turn to words in those moments together we seek the sequence and the rhyme Drifting slowly in time the scenery is changing through the window pane a pouring heavy rain Moving shapeless forms at the brink of incarnation as pictures of the past resemble us at last

CHORUS:

Feel the silence ascend as we speak
Scanning the world outside engulfed by the silence in this quiet street our souls were bound to meet We are lovers lost in search of fading memories although there's hurt and pain those feelings still remain

CHORUS:

Feel the silence ascend as we speak
