

Lullaby

Elemeno P

this is my lullaby
a song i wrote for you my dear and in the next couple of hours i think i'll send you flowers at work i hope it makes your day

you really know what sucks
my little buttercup
truely smitten
with your kitten eyes

no it seems i'm not a poet if i had a seed i'd sew it for you and maybe from a little shoot a sprout would grow some fruit

in the morning when we wake a birthday cake i'll bake for you and when i put your cash on black you didn't make me pay you back

with your kitten eyes
