

Perfect Stranger

Eleni Mandell

Perfect stranger, life's too cruel
Walking down the avenue
Wee small hours, summer swoon
You're a perfect stranger

Lightning striking all around
Lighting up this desert town
Empty parking lot with you
You're a perfect stranger

Just because it's probable
We'll never meet again
Fingers in my hair
Kisses I can not compare

Just because it's probable
We'll never meet again
Fingers in my hair
Kisses I can not compare

Desert hot wind blowing through
Feet are dangling in the pool
Wee small hours, summer swoon
I'm a perfect stranger too
