

Wings In His Eyes

Eleni Mandell

There are wings in his eyes
Beautiful butterflies
Silvery green like the moss on the trees
Wings in his eyes
Dangerous dragonflies
Blue like the deep southern skies

He's kind and he's careful
I know that I'll see him sometime
He's sweet and he's gentle
Opens my door and he closes mine
Oh my

Wings in his eyes
Filigreed fireflies
Gray like the clouds blowing by

He's kind and he's careful
I know that I'll see him sometime
He's sweet and he's gentle
Opens my door and he closes mine
Oh my

Wings in his eyes
Beautiful butterflies
Silvery green like the moss on the trees
Wings in his eyes
Dangerous dragonflies
Blue like the deep southern skies
