

We want something viral and violent
Brand new sin from the same old science
Can't slow down for the sense hidden in the silence
Kevlar, guns, unholy erections
Scroll through fears click here for the next one
We'd take the blame but it might ruin our complexion

And I wonder as I wander

Are we waiting for a moment that don't exist?
Draining our brain by the fingertip
Oh DJ why won't your record skip?
Two turntables and a microchip
Two turntables and a microchip
You're two turntables and a microchip

This mirror lies so buy me a new one
Let's take pills cause I still feel human
We've got the facts and the slim figures now to move them
Hand over heart we pledge our allegiance

All bow down to the new convenience
Same old teeth with a new young lung to breathe in

And I wonder as I wander

Are we waiting for a moment that don't exist?
Draining our brain by the fingertip
Oh DJ why won't your record skip?
Two turntables and a microchip
Two turntables and a microchip
You're two turntables and a microchip

Are we waiting for a moment that won't exist?
Cause I wonder as I wander

Are we waiting for a moment that don't exist?
Draining our brain by the fingertip
Oh DJ why won't your record skip?
Two turntables and a microchip
Two turntables and a microchip
You're two turntables and a microchip
