Will My Feet Still Carry Me Home

Elf Power

I wished it all away Nothing here but empty space Nothing left to fill my eyes No more movements in the night

We're all alone here Fighting through the days We erase our own fears You, I cannot save

I don't know which way to go Will my feet still carry me home?

Now I am finally
Free to wander endlessly
Free to ride the waterfall
Free to climb the mountain tall

We're all alone here...

I don't know... (2x)
