

Come Friday

Eliot Sumner

Sometimes I think to check
Sometimes I wish to cut you up
At times I've been the worst
At times I've been the best of you
And when you cry it's always me
And I destroyed our hopes and dreams
So I will try and I'll succeed
To be the one that sees
Right through your tears worth more than gold
I found comfort inside your soul
When you don't speak because you can't
And I won't weep nor will I dance
For England's sake I will stay cold
And will not show this hate I've grown
Look to my eyes for answers
You'll be the one that sees
Right through me

So come Friday and I'll be distant
So come Friday and I'll be found
So come Friday and we'll be together
So come Friday and I'll be down

Draw two circles from a last resort
Draw me into your passport
Now that I have my hate and love for you
The memory distorts
Have I found the formula?
Have I misled the misshaped fear while I congratulate your capturer
There's a definite defeat

So come Friday and I'll be distant
So come Friday and I'll be found
So come Friday and we'll be together
Come Friday and I'll be down

I'm still holding on
I'm still home enough that I can feel my sleep
So silence my grave
I was never here
But I'm holding on You're just holding on

So come Friday and I'll be distant
Come Friday and I'll be found
So come Friday and we'll be together
Come Friday and I'll be down

Come Friday and I'll be distant
So come Friday and I'll be found
Come Friday and we'll be together
Come Friday and I'll be down
