

Let My Love Lie On Your Life

Eliot Sumner

Turning the wheels of a possible future
I'm comatosed yet so awake
Fighting against all human nature
An animal of a mindstate

You are a stranger and my new obsession
Another planet forged
It seems I had met my maker
I didn't have a choice

So what is this thing that takes control of me
Let my love lie on your life and let love lie on me

I'm driven to deep distraction
Where does my focus lie?
You are a dangerous obsession
Not everyday applies but oh oh

I'm on the break of self-destruction
I need you in my life
I go into a deep depression
I go into a black hole

No one has ever left me
So let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life

Oh I'm gonna give you what I cannot hold
I wanna fucking overwhelm you
Spirit lies on your life like a headstone
Let my love lie on your life

I'm in a vulnerable position
I need you in my life
When I woke up this morning
Oh it felt so right

So let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
So let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
So let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
