

You're So Hollywood

Elise Estrada

You got to Paris' gym
Diet that got Oprah thin
And Leonardo walks out of Haute
Just as you were walking in
You got a VIP to the black eyed peas
Cause your new bestfriend's
Cousin's dentist did Fergie's teeth

Life in the fast lane
Fake name to try to fit in
And there's no shame
You'll change for any occasion
It's a tough pill to swallow
When you swim with the shallow
You're just another pretty face
In the city of sin

You're so Hollywood
Blinded by the lights
The lights, the lights
You're so Hollywood
Don't you get too high
If you're afraid of
Heights, of heights
You're living the dream
You're painting the town
But what goes up must come down
You're so Hollywood
Don't you get too high
If you're afraid of
Heights, of heights

It's a burberry top
And those sexy Prada shoes
Spend everything you got
So there's nothing left to lose
But you're 8 by 10
Made the deli wall
Even though that so called pilot
Never made it last fall

Life in the fast lane
And there's no shame
You'll change for any occasion
It's a tough pill to swallow
When you swim with the shallow
You're just another pretty face
In the city of sin

You're so Hollywood
The lights, the lights
You're so Hollywood
If you're afraid of

You're living the dream
But what goes up must come down
You're so Hollywood
Don't you get too high
If you're afraid of

All that glitters ain't gold
Dreams are made not sold
This place can be cold
It's time to go home

You're so Hollywood
Blinded by the lights
The lights, the lights
You're so Hollywood
Don't you get too high
If you're afraid of
Heights, of heights
You're living the dream
You're so Hollywood
If you're afraid of
