

Raindrops

ELLEGARDEN

I am lying
You are lying
We keep our backs turned away
You are hiding
but I'm not looking
You wonder if I'm still here

You are cheating
'Cause I am cheating
We know that but we're still pretending
We're still pretending

You're right I'm no good
You're no angel too
Let's see if we can find an easy way out

I am not sad
You're not sad
We're getting further everyday
We need to cut the bond tyin' us or we're gonna lose our breath

Here we go my dear

You're right I'm no good
You're no angel too
Let's see if we can find an easy way out
We are just raindrops
falling through the sky
All we do is wait
until the splash

All your goodness is gone now
Unbearable sweetness too
Our memories won't remain
We went on too long
All your loves all your hate all your hesitation all your kisses all your touches but a shadow of the past

You're right I'm no good
You're no angel too
Let's see if we can find an easy way out
We are just raindrops
falling through the sky
All we do is wait
until the splash

Here we go my dear
