

Ode to Myself

Ellie Goulding

Paint spilling, blue blood
I look back with fondness
But where was my fortitude
Delusion of that magnitude
Oh cause I did it for it you
It was always for you
Was killing for you
Swap places with you
Did it for you
It was always for you
Was killing for you
Oh cause I did it for it you
It was always for you
Was killing for you
Swap places with you
Did it for you
It was always for you
Was killing for you
