

Summernight Symphony

Eloy

A silver shimmering moonlit sky
Illuminates the night so clear
We share a dream, enchanted by
An overwhelming atmosphere

Just you and I beneath the sky
Side by side we're soaring high

We're riding through the summer night
On visionary wings of light
We're melting deep inside
To everlasting light
Sensational eternal ride
Illusions or reality?
Deception of our fantasy?
Beyond the skies a sanctuary
A paradise in secrecy

Endless stars so far, so high
Like sparkling diamonds in the sky
The time stands still in endless space
We enjoy the silence in embrace

Celestial tunes filling the air
A symphony without compare

We dance in everlasting light
In starry gentle summer night
It's splendor's shining clear and bright
It's warming rays we feel inside
Words and Sounds of Poetry
Transcending to a Symphony
Its gentle sounding melody
Is echoing eternally

We're riding through the summer night
On visionary wings of light
We're melting deep inside
To everlasting light
Sensational eternal ride
Illusions or reality?
Deception of our fantasy?
Beyond the skies a sanctuary
A paradise in secrecy
