You pull your ship into my isle And choke the helm for my delig ht Dragging your bony ghost Along my coast You dirty rotten bas tard Licking at my scars It turns me on It turns me on

You slip the shiver up my thigh And all the while You shirk and smile Hanging around my star Won't get you far The last laugh's yours baby Grow your fawns It turns me on It turns me on

It ain't human But it's all we get Chewing the hunter's net Is what we're doing

Perhaps you know My garden's chalk If something grows you'll ya nk the stalk Waving your shiny shears Right through my fears Yo u dirty rotten bastard Always almost gone You're almost gone It turns me on It turns me On
