

Champagne Dreams

Emblem3

Ready for another night of champagne dreams
In that fashion nova dress with nothing underneath
Only find her workin' with the finest quality
Only took one look I'm dead, turn the beachside into a bed

The setting sun is glowing with that golden body
Hope you know I'd trade the world to keep you next to me
Only find me workin' with the finest quality
Only took one look I'm dead, turn the beachside into a bed
Best life, what's next, what's next

Shine Bright like a vera wang (woo)
Fit tight like a wedding ring, yea
Stay route baby never change
Got wild heart hope that I'll never tame
Bigger than some new trends
Down to ride till the world's end
I won't lie I've been dead awhile
Give me something to feel again

Take a big pull from the Modelo
Goin' freak but started out mellow
Blessed with the backside like Cabello
Know we never gettin' old like JLo
When she walk by, breakin' necks like hello
Friends with the angels, friends with the devils
Will I ever slow down? say Hell No
Now make it gold bottle pop like a tail bone

Live like
There's no mañana, no mañana, no mañana no (ay ay ay)
Yeah she a bad lil mamma, lil mamma, lil mamma hoe (ay ay ay)
I know what she wanna, what she wanna, what she wanna do (ay ay yea)
Oh yeah
