

Keep on Dreaming

Emil Bulls

Yeah...

A fire shall be woken
To fix the blade that have been broken
Let's raise the sword of our beliefs
In the name of our dreams

We gonna move mountains with our faith
And if we've ever gone astray
Onto thin ice, we make ourselves believe!
That we can walk on water in times of need!

(Go) Light up the dark days with a smile on your face
There's a new feeling of hope on the streets of hate!
The desire for change adds fuel to the rage!
We're gonna break the chains and escape the cage!

We will be kings and all kings, they wear a crown!
You'll be defeated, the defeated wear a frown!
As heroes we'll go down in history!
As zeros you will burn, BURN IN PURGATORY

BURN, BURN, BURN IN, BURN IN PURGATORY
BURN, BURN, BURN IN, BURN IN PURGATORY

Keep on dreaming
Keep on believing
Just keep breathing
No matter how your heart is grieving

Never give up, never back down
To win you must attack (you must attack)
The world will drag you down
So fight until your heart stops beating

Till the mouth of every starving child is fed!
Till the last twisted mind on this planet is tamed!
Till the last tank is gone in fire!
And we raise daffodils instead of barbed wire!

We will be kings and all kings, they wear a crown!
You'll be defeated, the defeated wear a frown!
As heroes we'll go down in history!
As zeros you will burn, BURN IN PURGATORY

BURN, BURN, BURN IN, BURN IN PURGATORY
BURN, BURN, BURN IN, BURN IN PURGATORY

Keep on dreaming
Keep on believing
Just keep breathing
No matter how your heart is grieving

Never give up, never back down
To win you must attack (you must attack)
The world will drag you down
So fight until your heart stops beating

Keep on dreaming
Keep on believing
Just keep breathing
No matter how your heart is grieving

Never give up, never back down
To win you must attack (you must attack)
The world will drag you down
So fight until your heart stops beating

Keep on dreaming
Keep on believing
Just keep breathing
No matter how your heart is grieving

Never give up, never back down
To win you must attack (you must attack)
The world will drag you down
So fight until your heart stops beating
