

Me and Armini

Emiliana Torrini

I had my life
I know my place
I belong in your arms again
And I've been waiting
For you to belong to me

Some might say
I'm a silly woman to wait
But I know you still hold
My love

Some people think
That I'm heading for a meltdown
That I'm sitting by the phone
That I worry but no

When I need your body close
I burn up in smoke
And I swore I'd keep waiting

Now I see this city
Won't hold my love for Armini
I know he's close
But I dream
I just keep waiting
I keep waiting

Some people think
That I'm heading for a meltdown
That I'm just sitting by the phone
That I worry no

This I know she doesn't love you like I do yes it's clear she'll never love you like me

You people say that I'm Heading for a meltdown that I'm Just hanging by the phone that I worry but no

I don't worry 'cause I know
I don't worry 'cause I know
