

Business Man

Emily King

Well, your neighbors are starving while you're over-fed but your business is growing so you keep on going There's innocent people being put behind bars
but you, only pay attention to your movie stars
you ignore the cries, you ignore the cries.
Given to lies, given to lies...

Your Love is not for others but for shinny things
diamond rings, big chains.
The use inhales a poison that you manufacture but its not your concern, money is what you're after
You ignore the cries, you ignore the cries.
Given to lies, given to lies...

But see, in this world there are things you cannot win Happiness is not measured by what you spend if you would just imagine yourself at the other end, Business Ma n.

Oooooo...Business Man.

You keep on spending while pretending that you care about the lifes you hurt you should feel ashamed cuz its you to blame for tearing trashes from this earth.

Business man (2x) Oooooooooo...ooooo...

If you could just imagine yourself at the other end

Busines Man...oooo ohh ooo ohhh...Business Man (2x)
