

Sides

Emily King

After the light has gone away
And the monsters start to creep
I'll never fear the closet door
As long as you are there with me
Oh because

There's a side of me
That needs to be afraid
There's a side of you
That makes it all okay

If you get lost in the woods one day
On the cusp of a setting sun
Just call my name I'll get there right away

With my silver bullet gun
Because

There's a side of me
That needs to be afraid
There's a side of you
That makes it all okay

Oh ooo
You'll never have to worry 'cause I
(Oooh)
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
After the rain has taken everything
Yeah, yeah
And the darkness starts to fall
No, no, no, no, no, no, no
(Ooh, oooh)
