

Staying Home

Emily's Army

If you gone to leave me
I don't mind believe me
I'm staying home
Like a baby put in it's nest
Waiting for it's mother

And if you gone to leave me
You just have to please me
With all the words you forgotten

Well I'll rock'n'roll all night
And I'll rock'nroll all day
You can't stop me from that

Imagine that I went outside
Shooting for the stars
Everyone would look at me from their spoiling cars

And if you gone to leave me
You just have to please me
With all the words you forgotten

Well I'll rock'n'roll all night
And I'll rock'nroll all day
You can't stop me from that

I'll never leave this house again until these problems fades
Though I still have hope
I'm staying home again
