

Demons

Emma Drobná

Do you trust your man?
Do you trust your woman too?
Should we trust demons?
I've never met someone like you.
Do you trust your man?
Do you trust your woman too?
Should we trust demons?
I've never met someone like you.

Please don't do it,
Please don't sin.
I've got my trust in her,
I've got me trust in him.
Try no hurting,
Tell no lies.
Stop it before our,
Our love dies.
Please don't do it,
Please don't sin.
You're even more absurd,
Than I have ever been.
Cal me crazy.
I know for sure,
Thing you've done to me are imanture.

(demons are hurt)
I feel angry, you feel empty.
(demons are hurt)
Love is blind and love is nasty.
(demons are hurt)
Now you cry and I feel nothing.
(demons are hurt)
Party's over we'll be happy.

I beg you once more,
Let me lose.
I'm tired of your silly promises,
Getting me all confused.
Hold um I'm smiling,
I know what's up.
This whole time I held the key,
The one that can set me free.

(demons are hurt)
I feel angry, you feel empty.
(demons are hurt)
Love is blind and love is nasty.
(demons are hurt)
Now you cry and I feel nothing.
(demons are hurt)
Party's over we'll be happy.

Do you trust your man?
Do you trust your woman too?
Should we trust demons?
I've never met someone like you.
Do you trust your man?

Do you trust your woman too?
Should we trust demons?
I've never met someone like you.

It's kind of hard ,
And kind of kind of you.
To try and save my life,
Let me live mine.
Vibe my drive,
And pour a glass for me.
Honey there's no need,
For you to be mine.

I feel angry, you feel empty.
(you feel angry, I feel empty)
Love is blind and love is nasty.
(love is blind and love is nasty)
Now you cry and I feel nothing.
(now you're crying and I feel nothing)
Party's over we'll be happy.

(demons are hurt)
I feel angry, you feel empty.
(demons are hurt)
Love is blind and love is nasty.
(do you trust your man?)
(demons are hurt)
Now you cry and I feel nothing.
(should we trust demons?)
(demons are hurt)
It've never met someone like you.
