

On My Own

Emma Drobná

I wake up on my own
I brush my teeth on my own
I cook my lunch at home on my own
I do it all on my own

I take a bath on my own
I drink my tea
I fall asleep binging by TV
And I keep doing everything on my own
I don't know why, but I like it all alone

I laugh at the top of all the hills
And I get the chills, knowing that I'm still alive
I don't care if I'm happy or I die
Just as long as I have no one by my side

You can take away my head, make me good
Make me bad, make my laugh, make me cry
But you don't understand, no
The ice cold crown is forever mine, forever mine

You can take away my head, make me good
Make me bad, make my laugh, make me cry
But you don't understand, no
The ice cold crown is forever mine, forever mine

I have learned everything on my own
Now some time has passed, I'm still alone
And I can taste my fear in my bones
But now you're near, closer to my zone

And you blessed me with a crown, I took my chance
Without a frown on my face
Cause for you, I'm living this experience
I'd be a fool if I choose someone else

You can take away my head, make me good
Make me bad, make my laugh, make me cry
But you don't understand, no
The ice cold crown is forever mine, forever mine

You can take away my head, make me good
Make me bad, make my laugh, make me cry
But you don't understand, no
The ice cold crown is forever mine, forever mine

I laugh at the top of all the hills
And I get the chills, knowing that I'm still alive
I don't care if I'm happy or I die
Just as long as I have no one by my side

You can take away my head, make me good
Make me bad, make my laugh, make me cry
But you don't understand, no
The ice cold crown is forever mine, forever mine
