

Remember

Emma Drobná

Remember the first time we had that drink?
You say I'm a riot ever since
You never cared, but you came out clear
I was the one to play at hide and seek

Do you remember our first cigarette?
You were so scared you would die, I bet
But those were times to not forget
We hid so well no one would find our crib

We laughed and cried for so many years
Together or apart, what difference does it make?
I was there, you were far away
But then we'd cross our path
What difference does it make?

'Cause we bond so well
Even if I don't see you every day
But when you come around
I know it's Christmas time

We had ideals and our promises
That I'd never argue over a man
Two different guys we met one day
They were so nice, we could just melt

Do you remember our first tournament?
Friday night so high, Saturday was pain
You always took it much more well, yeah
I was the one to throw up and not tell

We laughed and cried for so many years
Together or apart, what difference does it make?
I was there, you were far away
But then we'd cross our path
What difference does it make?

'Cause we bond so well
Even if I don't see you every day
But when you come around
I know it's Christmas time

We laughed and cried for so many years
Together or apart, what difference does it make?
Yeah I was there, you were far away
But then we'd cross our path
What difference does it make?

'Cause we bond so well
Even if I don't see you every day
But when you come around
I know it's Christmas time

'Cause when you come around
I know it's Christmas time
