

Should I Give Up

Emma Drobná

Open up your heart, give me something
Things I didn't trust, there was a reason for me
Open up your heart, let me breathe now
The reason has arrived, I turn to Jesus, why?

If I run away, run away, if I run away
If I run away, run away, if I run away

I'm losing touch, I feel it too
I've got to know your point of view
Should I give up? Should I give up, oh?
Should I give up? Should I give up?
We have used to having fun out in the forest
I'll see you when the stars shine bright and high for us
And I will meet you anytime, in case you want to Find me anywhere, run towards future with me

Let's run away, run away, together run away
I'm losing touch, I feel it too
I've got to know your point of view
Should I give up? (Hey) Should I give up? (oh)
Should I give up? Should I give up? (Oh)
I'm losing touch, I feel it too
I've got to know your point of view
Should I give up?
Should I give up?
Should I give up?
Should I give up?
Oh

Should I give it up, oh yeah
Should I give it up, oh yeah
Should I give it up, oh yeah
Should I give it up, oh yeah

Should I give it up, give it up, give it up
Should I give it up, give it up, give it up
Should I give it up, oh yeah
Should I give it up, oh yeah
