

Two More Bottles of Wine

Emmylou Harris

We came out west together with a common desire
The fever we had mightha set the West Coast on fire
Two months later got trouble in mind
Oh my baby moved out and left me behind

But it's all right 'cause it's midnight
And I got two more bottles of wine

The way he left sure turned my head around
Seemed like overnight it just up and put me down
Well I ain't gonna let it bother me today
I've been workin' and I'm too tired anyway

But it's all right, midnight
And I got two more bottles of wine

Well I'm sixteen hundred miles from the people I know
Have been doin' all I can but opportunity sure come slow
Well I'd be in the sun all day
But I'm sweepin' out a warehouse in West L.A.

But it's all right 'cause it's midnight
And I got two more bottles of wine

I'm sixteen hundred miles from the people I know
Been doin' all I can but opportunity sure come slow
Lord, I'd be in the sun all day
But I'm sweepin' out a warehouse in West L.A.

But it's all right 'cause it's midnight
And I got two more bottles of wine
Yes, it's all right 'cause it's midnight
And I got two more bottles of wine
Yes, it's all right 'cause it's midnight
And I got two more bottles of wine
