

Shame

Empires

emotionless to the love of your life is it all you have left or have you gone
with the rebels of horror

it's a terrible place to go
we were close
all was close
we were sure to grow(?)

go, where'd you go
this is all such a low down dirty

shame on you
tonight little girl
for expiring in our world

tonight little girl

emotionless in the dead of the night where we'd always laugh on fire what's it like when your heart carries vies(?) for the meeting of our lies

all was close
we were sure to grow old where did you go
where'd you go

tonight little girl

tonight little girl

shame on you

oh, shame on you
tonight

is it all you have left
