

Blue Skies

En Vogue

Just to get through another day
It took everything in me to find my way
Had to tell myself not to quit
There's a voice within me, says I can handle this

Stop... think... just... breathe
I can hear these words inside of me, saying
Be... still... re... lease
You're gonna make it through this day
Everything's gonna be okay

I pushed through the winds
I stood in the rain
I weathered the storm
Now nothing but blue skies around me
And I, I'm better inside
I've opened my eyes
See nothing but blue skies around me

I see the tears you're trying to hide
And the load is heavy on the inside
When the battle's raging all around
When you're feeling hopeless and you're shutting down

Stop... think... just... breathe
You gotta listen to the voice in you, saying
Be... still... re... lease
You're gonna make it through this day
Everything is gonna be okay

I pushed through the winds
I stood in the rain
I weathered the storm
Now nothing but blue skies around me
And I, I'm better inside
I've opened my eyes
See nothing but blue skies around me
Yeah yeah yeah

You can fall, you can crawl but you can't quit
(You can fall but you can't quit, yeah)
It'll change, stay strong, gotta hang in (It's gonna change if you want it, yeah)
What you will can be yours if you want it
(What you will can be yours, yeah...)

I pushed through the winds
I stood in the rain
I weathered the storm
Now nothing but blue skies around me
And I'm, I'm better inside
I've opened my eyes
See nothing but blue skies around me
I stood in the rain
I weathered the storm

And I, I'm better inside
I've opened my eyes
See nothing but blue skies around me
I stood in the rain
I weathered the storm
Now nothing but blue skies around me
I've opened my eyes
See nothing but blue skies around me
I stood in the rain
I weathered the storm
Now nothing but blue skies around me
I've opened my eyes
See nothing but blue skies around me
