

Humanity is overrated, you're the only one for me
I let my eyes re-wander to a beauty, absentee
Into a world of chaos, she stands on hollow ground
Floating out into the air, embracing me with care

The stars show bleeding and pain
I'm scared of what could be, will I see?
I am blinded and I'm guilty of passion
Longing, the black in you

My fingertips are touching the naked skin which just been kissed
It cuts like blades and leaves my lips dripping in shades
Into a world of chaos, we lie on hollow ground
We don't need the surface cause we're off for higher bounds

The stars show bleeding and pain
I'm scared of what could be, will I see?
I am blinded and I'm guilty of passion
Longing, the black in you

Into your eyes, into the lies, into the darkness, into my mind, into your eyes
To the bridge we share, controls our souls, connected as one

The stars show bleeding and pain
I'm scared of what could be, will I see?
I am blinded and I'm guilty of passion
Longing, the black in you

The stars show bleeding and pain
I'm scared of what could be, will I see?
I am blinded and I'm guilty of passion
Longing, the black in you
