End of Green

From the crypt hear my calling spent some holidays in hell all fellows have fallen, wear the gallows every day carry me and let me sleep near the cemetery hilly between the angels and forgotten, this retribution won't stop me prepare for my solitude no one will be save the fortune will conquer you, the light on dead end stairs i can feel it is nice i don't fear, i'm not surprised i am hanging please don't tear down broken walls cut my throat, cut me down, leave me hanging, hear the sound don't let me crawl back on the ground dead end stare
