

Pack of Thieves

Enter Shikari

Here behind those eyes,
There is something you should know.
Here behind those eyes,
There is something you should know.

Oooohh, change can not be subject to conditional falls,
'Cause we're squatting in a system that consistently scalds.
Don't be fooled into thinking that a small group of friends,
Cannot change the world!

That's the only thing that ever hurts,
The only thing that ever ends.

Stand up!
Stand up!

That's the only thing that ever hurts,
The only thing that ever ends.

Stand up!
Stand up!

Here behind those eyes,
There is something you should know!

Oooohh, behind those eyes,
We reach through the callous disguise
Into fortresses where they fabricate whitewash and lies,
We were fooled into living with a small pack of thieves,
That disturbed the world.

That's what this antique structure creates,
What this antique structure creates!

Stand up!
Stand up!

That's what this antique structure creates,
What this antique structure creates!

Stand up!
Stand up!

Here behind those eyes,
There is something you should know.

We are all connected.
We are all connected.

NOW CHANGE THE WORLD.

We blast behind those eyes,
Smash through to the cortex.
Gut wrenching business,
Not psyched for the vortex.

This can't be real! Ahhh!

Here behind those eyes,
There is something you should know.
Hid behind those eyes,
There is something you should know.

Don't be fooled into thinking that a small group of friends,
Cannot change the world!
