

THE GREAT UNKNOWN

Enter Shikari

Is this a new beginning?
Or are we close to the end?
Now my ears are ringing
It's getting close towards

Is this a new beginning
Or are we close to the end?
Now the room is spinnin'
It's getting closer now

I've been waiting for the great leap forwards
So impatient, yeah, I wanna cut corners
Stare at the skyline, reach for a lifeline
I shout into the great unknown

If there's anyone out there
Just give me a sign
If there's anyone out there
I shout into the great unknown

If there's anyone out there
Just give me a sign
If there's anyone out there
I shout into the great unknown

Is this a new beginning
Or are we close to the end?
Now the room is spinnin'
It's getting closer now

Oh, the beauty of the twilight glows
Oh, the delusion of Vincent van Gogh
A red sky at night, a shepherd's flashlight
His beam sweeps like brush strokes across the sky

If there's anyone out there
Just give me a sign
If there's anyone out there
I shout into the great unknown

If there's anyone out there
Just give me a sign
If there's anyone out there
I shout into the great unknown

Is this a new beginning?
Or are we close to the end?
Now my ears are ringing
It's getting close towards

If there's anyone out there
Just give me a sign
If there's anyone out there
I shout into the great unknown

If there's anyone out there
Just give me a sign

If there's anyone out there
I shout into the great unknown
