

Waltzing Off the Face of the Earth (I. Crescendo)

Enter Shikari

Regardless what you feel
This song isn't real
And the earth isn't sphere
And you're not really here
You can't trust your own eyes
And you only hear lies

Our future's been denied
And there's nowhere to hide
Now that nothing is true
And everything is possible
Nothing is true
And everything is possible
Nothing is true
And everything is possible

Regardless what you feel
Here comes the big reveal
Darling, you were a mistake
And climate change is fake
You must dream of being rich and famous
Only then will life be painless
We all start to twig
From pig to man, from man to pig
There's been a shooting in a Walmart
So put guns on every shopping cart
There's dead kids on the beach
Bigoted parents now decide what teacher's teach
