

December Ends

Enter The Haggis

Sorry, did I startle you?
My face was to the mirror
Broken wings are lovely things
If they can lead you nearer

In ever cloud, there is some silver
Every shadow comes from light, yeah
Something takes my hands and makes
The wrong in me all right

Shining one, you're the sun
And I am burning up inside you
Shadows fly on wings of pride
And if I follow, I will find you

Silent one, on my own
I whisper to you
"I remember"
My eclipse is on your lips
And finger tips
Until December ends...

Until December ends

Even though I know my name
I know myself inside you
People loathe December snow
But they don't need you, I do

Crimson women misbehave
And I reap the consequences
Fading to the jade in you
And surrender my defenses...

Shining one, you're the sun
And I am burning up inside you...

And I say...
And I say, yeah...

Shining one, you're the sun
And I am burning up inside you
Shadows fly on wings of pride
And if I follow, I will find you

Silent one, on my own
I whisper to you
"I remember"
My eclipse is on your lips
And finger tips
Until December ends...

Until December ends
