So you say you're willing to Break out and spend your last day with me

And still you want to walk by my side

On the surface
As harmless as can be
You and me
But underneath
There's a story never told
About you and me
No complications please
I will win situation is to prefere, yeah
But are you willing to let loose
On my defaulse will you still be here

So you say you're willing to Break out and spend your last day with me A stiff? to climb And still you want to walk by my side On the surface As harmless as can be You and me But underneath There's a story never told About you and me On the surface As harmless as can be You and me But underneath There's a story never told About you...