Live in this moment like there is no past All that matters is to be who you are Be in this moment judgements will not last Urge yourself again to claim back your life Take a leap into the dark Dare to dive and fall The point of no return restrains us

Shine through the sky
Beyond the matrix
Feel what it's like
To reach divinity
Aim at the sky open your mind
Then you will be balanced and free
Be the master over your own energy

Shake off oiled feathers leave your past behind Use your inner force to reach your true self When there's no future you can't be occupied By non-essential waste and ruins of the past Recreate your hologram Dare to dive and fall The point of no return restrains us

Shine through the sky
Beyond the matrix
Feel what it's like
To reach divinity
Aim at the sky open your mind
Then you will be balanced and free
Be the master over your own energy

Someday you'll open up again
(To learn and grow)
Someday you'll have to reach for new endeavors
To perceive your inner self
(Perceive your soul)
Someday you'll start to live your life

Shine through the sky
Beyond the matrix
Feel what it's like
To reach divinity
Aim at the sky open your mind
Then you will be balanced and free
Be the master over your life
Stay in charge maintain your duty
Dive into the sea of pure tranquillity
