

The Game

EPMD

Its your game
And now it's all up to you Cos that's how we do Cos you are
A fighter
fighter

You paint it on the wall
Now it's time to stand tall Stop acting so weak
The everlasting losers
Are bad to succeed

and i wonder is this all you asking for seem today
there's no excuses anymore

its your game
And now it's all up to you
cos that's how we do
cos you are
a fighter

You seen it all before You never knew the score
Now wash away the curse
Welcome to the show
To playground universe

see this life
you see this life got ashamed if you wont break and you wont break out break out of the frame

Chorus:
its your game
And now it's all up to you
cos that's how we do
cos you are
a fighter

The one will never knew your name
If you don't try to run a game

You got a ?george?
George like a hurrican

its your game
And now it's all up to you

cos that's how we do
cos you are
a fighter

its your game
Like a hurricane
its your game
its your game
