

Creep

Eric Bellinger

I, I, I will never creep on you
I, I, I will never creep on you
I will never creep on, you
YSF

Ever since I made it to the money
Been so many ladies around me
But you know you the only one for me
Even with all the ladies around me, I see you
And they all want me, but I need you

Why would I wanna fuck all that up
Why would I wanna fuck all that up
Why would I wanna
When you look like that when you take all that off

I will never creep on you
I will never creep on you
I, I, I will never creep on you
I will never creep on, you
I will never creep on, you
I, I, I will never creep on you
I will never creep on, you
I will never creep on, you
I will never creep on, you

Girl I will never creep on you, never creep on you
I will never creep on you, never creep on you
I ain't never gon' creep, I ain't never gon' creep
Girl I ain't never gon' creep on you

You still got my attention boy, you onto something
Creep on you nigga, why would I ever, ever
You could be the one man that could get it from me
So you can leave your heart open, fall in love in slow motion
To call me your dime is a victory
My beauty's the loudest, you should be the proudest
Your skin on my skin is the shit to me
I got what was missing, I fit the description, that's why I'm your Queen
I'm happy you got one, cause one of these hoes should not be an option
I kill em and get away, no Johnnie Cochran
Priorities wrong if I ain't the topic, and that's real you gotta believe this shit
Them other dudes losing on you I've been choosing, and I swear to god I'm in need of this
If you leave with nothing, boy leave with this

I will never creep on you
I will never creep on you
I, I, I will never creep on you
I will never creep on, you
I will never creep on, you
I, I, I will never creep on you
I will never creep on, you
I will never creep on, you
I will never creep on, you
