

Devil And Jesus

Eric Burdon

The Devil and Jesus
The Devil and Jesus
The Devil and Jesus Controlling my soul
They fight with each other
But I pay the toll
For years they've been fighting
For a piece of my mind
Which one will win
And leave the other behind
The Devil and Jesus (3x)
I have to agree
Each one, in my heart, has planted its seed
But I'm no different from any of you
I look at myself
I see them there too
Be careful my friend!
Which side you feed
The monster inside soon will be revealed
Now don't be a fool
And say it's not true
Either the Devil or Jesus
Will tell you what to do
The Devil or Jesus
That you keep confined
There is always the danger
Of losing your mind
The Devil and Jesus (repeats)
