

Devil Run

Eric Burdon

My Papa left and the war went on
Got no rest since he ain't come home
Bet the wind heard his mighty roar
I'm gonna kill you cause I can't go home

Damn devils are running
I can't shoot anymore

Devil run I can't shoot anymore
Go on home cause your asking for more
If the storm brings hell upon you
Blame yourself I won't let you through

Damn devils are running
I can't shoot anymore
Damn devils keep running
I won't let you through

Fires burn as you look away
You've been lying to use everyday
Still you follow the devil's run
You can't unite the world with a gun

It's no joke we're a mad universe
No one to trust to make it work
If the war don't make it alright
We burn in hell and we loose the fight

Damn devils are running
I can't shoot anymore
Damn devils are running
I won't let you through
