

Life After Life

Eric Hutchinson

Where do I go when I die and my life has been lost
Will I feel foolish for all of my funeral costs

Ooh la la ooh la la ooh la la life after life
Ooh la la ooh la la ooh la la life after life

When I wake up to find I'm sleeping in a pine box
Will I start thinking, "hey I should've worn warmer socks"

Ooh la la ooh la la ooh la la life after life
Ooh la la ooh la la ooh la la life after life

Everything is what you make it
I'm waiting
I'm waiting

Ooh la la ooh la la ooh la la life after life
Ooh la la ooh la la ooh la la life after life

I must be rolling over, I must be rolling over
If I'm re-incarnated, I must be rolling over in my grave
I must be rolling over, I must be rolling over
If I'm re-incarnated, I must be rolling over in my grave
I must be rolling over, I must be rolling over
If I'm re-incarnated, I must be rolling over in my grave

Everything is what you make it
I'm waiting
I'm waiting

Ooh la la ooh la la ooh la la life after life
Ooh la la ooh la la ooh la la life after life

After life, after life
After life, after life
After life, after life
After life, after life
