

Stay

Eric Saade

Forgive me, I am sorry, fucked up all we had,
I've been losing everything heart's split in half,
Drunk here again I've been down so bad
This is torture my world gone mad

You're made for me so naturally
I couldn't see all that before
Won't you believe you're all I live for
Forgive me, I am sorry, fucked up all we had,
Question: tell me, can we go back?

Want you to die in my arms,
promise to never let go
Tired of tears on my pillow,
begging you girl, come back home!
Would it be alright?
Would it be alright?
Would it be alright?
Would it be alright?
Stay!

I feel it when I'm breathing you're still in my lungs.
I hear it when
I'm speaking you're still on tongue.
Stop don't hang up, listen I'm not done.
Wanna tell you you're second to none.

You're made for me so naturally
I couldn't see all that before
Won't you believe you're all I live for.
I feel it when I'm breathing you're still in my lungs.
Stay baby stay, or I'll go numb.

Want you to die in my arms,
promise to never let go
Tired of tears on my pillow,
begging you girl, come back home!
Would it be alright?
Would it be alright?
Would it be alright?
Would it be alright?
Would it be alright?
Would it be alright?
Would it be alright?
Stay!
