

Snowblood

Erra

Blood starved machine in a feeding frenzy
Don't look now, but the floor is collapsing
No escape, the plummet is everlasting
Sound awake in the bed I've made
Pull out the pin, sanity is a grenade

Dead and sound awake
You could lose yourself in the absence of loss
Reset and wander far away
Dead and sound awake
Ambitions thrown away
Spirits washed away
You should know
Nothing lasts forever

Following footprints in circles, going snowblind
Exits overgrown inside the maze of my mind
Crawling out of the crypt to bleed the living dry
In this fantasy, the villains win, the heroes die
Slow diving to despair
Fuck it, I'm done
This is a waking nightmare

Blood starved machine in a feeding frenzy

Dead and sound awake
You could lose yourself in the absence of loss
Reset and wander far away
Dead and sound awake
Ambitions thrown away
Spirits washed away
You should know
Nothing lasts forever

Black moon rising
Glimpse of madness
Blossom black rose
Withered, Abandoned
Sorrowed, Sleepless, Alone

Sleepless nights, hearing voices
Faint whispers expand like disease
The dead are not dreaming
Can't you hear them screaming?

This is a waking nightmare
Crawling out of the crypt to bleed the living dry
In this fantasy, the villains win, the heroes die
Slow diving to despair
Fuck it, I'm done
This is a waking nightmare
